

Prospect 3

Lesson 5

Media

Vocabularies and Expressions

By: Mr. Rezapour

to be present in a television program

to switch from one television channel
to another by a remote control

connect to the internet

to have access to the Internet

download sth from the internet to move programs,

video, music or information
into a computer
from the Internet

to add a new software dictionary
to a computer

to add a software
to a computer that finds and removes viruses

interview somebody

to ask somebody
questions
to get information

look at the newsstand

to look at a place in the street where you can buy newspapers and magazines

participate in an online course to take part in a class via

the internet

receive an E-mail

to get a message
by the computer
over the Internet

to see a film that is about fighting between two or more countries or groups to send someone

a written message
on a mobile phone

update a blog

to add the most recent information to the personal web page

to use computers and electronic systems for storing and using information to watch a television program in which people answer questions to win prizes

.Good Luck
Rezapour
1398